

Plagiarism: Problem with Direct Borrowing/Paraphrasing

Barack Hussein Obama was born in Hawaii on August 4, 1961. He grew up in Hawaii, Indonesia and later New York, where he graduated from Columbia University. After a respite from corporate life to work as a community organizer in Chicago, Obama went on to earn his law degree from Harvard and successfully run for the United States Senate. On the issue of health care, ~~Obama has historically voted~~ in favor of a universal system. According to the Afl-Cio "Health Care For All report," he voted against a 14 billion dollar, five-year funding cut for Medicaid, which would have resulted in more uninsured and uncompensated care, causing a shift of the financial burden to employer-sponsored health plans. ("Obama Voted Against Cutting Medicaid Funding") The Health Care For All study also reports Mr. Obama voted for a bill that reauthorized SCHIP (State Children's Health Insurance Program) for five years and provided the program an additional 35.2 billion dollars. Furthermore, the report shows Obama additionally supported a budget resolution that would have authorized 50 billion dollars to expand the program. ("Obama Supported Reauthorizing SCHIP and Providing Insurance for Millions of Uninsured Children") There are few instances in which Obama has voted against expanding universal health care to the needy. One such circumstance was when a bill for the SCHIP was presented to extend coverage to unborn babies and their mothers. This would have reduced costs associated with premature births and low weight babies. (Ertelt)

indirect borrowing not in quotes

low summary includes paraphrases that are too close to the source wording or are direct eliminate consumer protections that are now required under existing state laws, such as cancer screenings and well-child visits. The bill would have resulted in higher premiums for people who need health care the most, such as older workers. (S. 1955, Vote 149, 5/11/06)

Obama Voted Against Cutting Medicaid Funding. Obama voted against a $14 billion, five-year funding cut for Medicaid. The cuts would have resulted in more uninsured and uncompensated care, shifting the burden to employer-sponsored health plans. (S.Amdt. 204 to S.Con.Res. 18, Vote 58, 3/17/05)

Obama Expanded Health Care Coverage for Low-Income Families. When he was a state senator in Illinois, Obama's bill expanded income eligibility for KidCare and FamilyCare, the state health insurance programs for low-income families. (Public Act 93-0063, 6/30/03)

Obama Opposed Steep Increases in Seniors' Medicare Premiums. Obama

Plagiarism: Problem with Paraphrasing Too Close to the Original

Barack Hussein Obama was born in Hawaii on August 4, 1961. He grew up in Hawaii, Indonesia and later New York, where he graduated from Columbia University. After a respite from corporate life to work as a community organizer in Chicago, Obama went on to earn his law degree from Harvard and successfully run for the United States Senate. On the issue of health care, Obama has historically voted in favor of a universal system. According to the Afl-Cio "Health Care For All report," he voted against a 14 billion dollar, five-year funding cut for Medicaid, which would have resulted in more uninsured and uncompensated care, causing a shift of the financial burden to employer-sponsored health plans. ("Obama Voted Against Cutting Medicaid Funding") The Health Care For All study also reports Mr. Obama voted for a bill that reauthorized SCHIP (State Children's Health Insurance Program) for five years and provided the program an additional 35.2 billion dollars. Furthermore, the report shows Obama additionally supported a budget resolution that would have authorized 50 billion dollars to expand the program. ("Obama Supported Reauthorizing SCHIP and Providing Insurance for Millions of Uninsured Children") There are few instances in which Obama has voted against expanding universal health care to the needy. One such circumstance was when a bill for the SCHIP was presented to extend coverage to unborn babies and their mothers. This would have reduced costs associated with premature births and low weight babies. (Ertelt)

indirect borrowing not in quotes

Your summary includes paraphrases that are too close to the source wording or are direct imitations businesses, giving them access to benefits similar to those available to members of Congress. Key features would be guaranteed eligibility; affordable premiums, co-pays and deductibles; and quality care standards. (Obama for America)

HIS RECORD

Obama Supported Reauthorizing SCHIP and Providing Insurance for Millions of Uninsured Children. Obama voted to reauthorize the State Children's Health Insurance Program (SCHIP) for five years, providing an additional $35.2 billion for the program. He also voted for the budget resolution that would have authorized $50 billion to expand the program as well as $9.5 billion for increases in programs such as No Child Left Behind, Pell Grants, the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act and essential funding for veterans health care. (H.R. 976, Vote 307, 8/2/07; S.Con.Res. 21, Vote 172, 5/17/07)

Obama Voted to Allow Importation of Affordable Prescription Drugs from Other Countries. Obama voted to allow senior citizens to import less expensive prescription drugs from other countries, specifically Canada. (S.Amdt. 990 to S. 1082, Vote 150, 5/3/07)