

TC Exercise #2: Punctuation Review

You should check your answers:

--answers to Exercises #1

--answers to Exercise #3

As you check your answers, have open the Guide to Punctuation and Sentence Structure to see where you are getting punctuation right and where you need more practice and study.

Review our punctuation learning materials (listed below).

Learning About/Reviewing Punctuation

- 1) First, study/review the section on punctuation in our textbook's Appendix Part C: Editing and Proofreading Your Documents pages 659-671.
- 2) Then, narrow your focus for punctuation review to the "Five Things Punctuation Helps you Do" found in my "Guide to Punctuation and Sentence Structure":
<http://www.lirvin.net/WGuides/punct.htm>

I recommend that you learn these five things punctuation helps you do. You also should view the accompanying video guide, and you can print this one page version of this punctuation guide:

<http://www.lirvin.net/1301sitebb/doingpunct.pdf>

Need ANOTHER place to review and practice punctuation?

Try Grammar Bytes!

(It has interactive exercises where you can check your answers right away.)

<http://www.chompchomp.com/exercises.htm>