

WTI

THE WRITING & THINKING INSTITUTE

INFORMATION FOR PROSPECTIVE FELLOWS

About the WTI

SAC Writing & Thinking Institute (WTI) promotes the use of writing as an instructional tool for learning and critical thinking across the curriculum at San Antonio College. The WTI is a year-long professional development course for faculty to advance their skills for using writing effectively to teach course content. .

What You Will Learn

During this course, faculty will share best practices with their colleagues.

Topics of the course include:

- principles of write-to-learn
- approaches to using informal and formal writing assignments
- strategies for using writing to engage students in critical thinking and deep learning
- elements of effective writing assignment design.
- and more

Your Commitment as a WTI Fellow

The WTI course involves attending 30 hours of professional development over two semesters

- 15 hours in Fall and Spring over four Friday afternoon sessions
- Friday sessions always involve lunch

Participants agree to

- develop and try in their classroom two informal, exploratory write-to-learn assignments in the Fall, and one informal, exploratory and one formal assignment in the Spring
- share one of these classroom writing assignments at the WTI Conference
- compile all their deliverables in an ePortfolio at the end of the Institute
